

COME IN UEM scholarships

Scholarships for visiting students from partner institutions outside Europe

In order to give students from universities of member churches of UEM (United Evangelical Mission) outside Europe the opportunity to take part in the International Study Programme at the Protestant University of Applied Sciences (EvH RWL) in Bochum, the EvH RWL is awarding up to four COME IN UEM scholarships for the summer semester of 2021.

What does the scholarship involve?

The COME IN UEM scholarship includes the costs for board and lodging, flight, visa and insurance. The home university of the scholarship holders only need to pay the semester contribution (approx. 330 - 340 Euro) which includes also the public transport ticket for the whole region. There is no own contribution of the scholarship holders.

Who can apply?

Application is open to students from universities of member churches of UEM

- who are located outside Europe and cannot be supported within the terms of the ERASMUS+ programme (EU),
- who are recommended by their organisation or university for visiting studies at the EvH RWL
- who have sufficient English language skills (at least level B1 in terms of CEFRL).

Application and selection

Those who are interested should contact the International Office or the appropriate contact person at their university. They will nominate one student per university for the scholarship.

The selected students must submit their application to the EvH by 30 November 2020, including the following documents:

- Letter of Motivation (personal statement, 1-2 pages)
- Application form (application form for incoming students, available online)
- Brief curriculum vitae (CV)

Consideration can only be given to applications which are submitted on time.

The scholarships can only be awarded subject to the confirmation of the funding agency.
